Donations and Volunteers

The annual Monroe Spring Fair is right around the corner and we are in need of volunteers & donations. Volunteers will help to run games & concessions. Donations include baked goods & candy. To see a full list of how you can help, please go to www.timetosignup.com/monroepfo. There will be two links you can use to sign up for the spring fair. One is for donations and the other is to volunteer. We could not have these momentous events without help from the families at Monroe. Thank you for all that you do!

2019 Monroe Spring Fair Wristbands

Due to a wonderful year of fundraising, the PTO is offering free games and arts & crafts at the Spring Fair! The free wristbands will be made available to all Monroe Elementary students and siblings (up to 8th grade.) Admission to the fair is free to the public.

- To register your child/children, please fill out the bottom and send it back to school. You only need to pre-register if you are registering siblings that do not attend Monroe. *If all your children attend Monroe, you do not need to pre-register.
- Siblings must be in 8th grade or younger and MUST be pre-registered to receive FREE wristband(s). Register even if you are unsure if you can attend. *If you do not pre-register siblings, you will have to buy them the day of the fair.
- Wristband(s) will be available to purchase for family, siblings and friends at the Wristband Table the night of the fair. All students of Monroe Elementary will receive a free wristband whether you pre-register or not.
- Wristbands can be purchased for $8.00 each.
- If you pre-register, you must pay by check. The night of the fair you can pay with cash or check made payable to Monroe PTO for purchased wristband(s).
- All Food will be sold "cash" only.
- Games will be provided for younger preschool age children.
- Questions: Please contact Connie Thompson coie22@comcast.net or Steph Gettys skgettys@gmail.com.
